

2010-11 Fees for All Students (UK & International):

Our status as an independent college means we are able to offer international students the same rate as UK students.

PhD: £3144 per year full-time (part time fees charged pro-rata).

MPhil: £4244.40 full-time (+ £125 registration fee for a year to write up if required)

Accommodation:

Some on-site accommodation is available students (cost not included in the course fees). For those unable to obtain accommodation on-site, we are happy to offer (non-financial) help in finding external accommodation.

Library:

Our library has extended opening hours, internet access for study purposes and web-based learning facilities. MA & Research students at Luther King House are also able to access the John Rylands University of Manchester Library, which has an extensive collection of books and other resources.

Application:

Please submit a written application form accompanied by Academic CV, proof of TOEFL/IELTS test if English is not your first language and a short summary of your proposed area of research (no more than 500 words). Application forms can be downloaded from www.lutherkinghouse.org.uk

Luther King House offers short courses for personal development, mid-week and week-end degrees, MAs, MPhils and PhDs.

For more information about all our courses, please visit our website: www.lutherkinghouse.org.uk contact us by email at: learning@lkh.co.uk or phone: + 44 (0) 161 249 2504.

Luther King House
Brighton Grove
Manchester M14 5JP

Registered No. 4065581
Registered Charity No. 1082375

This document is also available in other formats.

Luther King House

Research Degrees in Contextual Theology

at

Luther King House

an affiliated college of

The University of Manchester

*MPhils & PhDs - No additional fees for international students
- Hosts British Council & Council for World Mission students -
- Excellent library facilities - Bursaries available -*

www.lutherkinghouse.org.uk

Email: learning@lkh.co.uk Phone: +44 (0) 161 249 2504

The University of Manchester

Research Degrees in Contextual Theology at Luther King House, validated by the University of Manchester

Previous Research Degrees include:

PhDs:

Children of the Mud Hut: Constructing a Theology of Mission for the Church in Botswana
Constructions of Abuse Trauma and the Resources of the Religious Imagination
Implications of the earthquake of 11.21.1999 for the mission work of the Presbyterian Church of Taiwan
The use of Spaces for Public Worship in the Early Reformed Tradition
Reverend Peter Thomas Stanford: "Birmingham's Colored Preacher" 1860 - 1909
Girls in transition: self relationship in early adolescence

MPhils:

One Life, Many Deaths: A Reader's Response to the Gospel of Mark in the Process of Grief
The Place of Chaplaincy in the FE Sector
The history and influence of the Scotch Baptists

Areas we are presently covering are as follows:

Contemporary Dalit Theology: Approaches, Methods and Problems
Comparison of Hindu philosophy with the Book of Job
The United Reformed Church and the future of its Mission in the Urban Context.
Older people; visibility and bodily experiences: spirituality for a changing context
The Concept of Charity: from Christian virtue to Non-Profit Agency
Empowerment and the Abuse of Power in Baptist Churches
The making of persons in Community: a conversation within recent studies in language and science.
The Past and Potential Meaning and Practice of Ecumenical Learning within the World Council of Churches
The Many Lives of Genesis 6.1-4
Cathedrals and Change in the Twentieth Century
English Presbyterian Women in Formosa/Taiwan: The role of the Presbyterian Women's Missionary Association in the development of the Presbyterian Church of Taiwan

Coming soon: e-scholar - recent publications soon available to download on-line. Please ask for details.

Present supervisors and their research areas include:

Revd Dr Jan Berry, MA Convener
Research areas include feminist theology and liturgy, pastoral and practical theology, and congregational studies. Her most recent publication is: Ritual Making Women: Shaping Rites for Changing Lives, London: Equinox (2009)

Dr David Goodbourn, President, Luther King House Educational Trust
Research areas include ecumenism and adult Christian education (not taking further students). Member of the panel of reference, Journal of Adult Theological Education 2003-present. He most recently published: 'Holistic Education: Sign Posts and Warnings' in the Holistic Education Resource Book, Waxman, Munster (2005)

Revd Dr Richard Kidd, Co-Principal, Northern Baptist Learning Community
He has supervised research in many areas of modern theology and Christian apologetics. Special interests include theology and art, theology and science, and Christian spirituality. His most recent publication is: God and the Art of Seeing: Visual Resources for the Journey of Faith, Regent's Park College, Oxford and Smyth & Helwys Publishing, Macon (2003), co-authored with Graham Sparkes.

Dr Tony Moodie, Principal, Hartley Victoria College
His research interest is in Spirituality and worldviews, Western, African and other. His most recent publication is: 'Recent developments in theology and religious studies: the South African experience.' in DL Bird & SG Smith (eds.), Theology and Religious Studies in Higher Education: Global Perspectives, London: Continuum. (2008). (with J. Jarvis)

Revd Dr John Parry, Tutor, Northern College
His specialist fields are Missiology and World Faiths, primarily Islam, Hinduism and Sikhism. His most recent publication is: The Word of God is Not Bound, a history of the encounter of Sikhs and Christians in India and the UK, Bangalore: CFCC (2009).

Revd Dr Anne Phillips, Joint Principal, Northern Baptist College
Her special interests are in faith development especially of children (her research was into the spirituality and faith of girls at puberty), and feminist theology and spirituality. Recent publications (under her former name of Anne Dunkley) include: Seen and Heard – Whitley Lecture 1999/2000, Whitley Publications (1999) Upside Down World, NCEC (1996) Getting Across, NCEC (1995)

Revd Dr Andrew Pratt, Tutor, Hartley Victoria College
His research areas are Hymns and hymnody from 18th century to the present day, especially Methodist material, including: hymns making theology, hymns and biography, hymns and theological reflection. Recent publications include: Nothing too Religious: Worship Resources... but Nothing too Religious, Peterborough: Inspire (2008) (co-authored with Marjorie Dobson) Net Gains: a guide for Ministry, Peterborough: Inspire (2008)

Please see our website for more detailed information about staff research interests and publications.